

Authorization to Obtain Consumer Report

I hereby authorize Case Marketing INC, clients, other persons, or firms acting on behalf to procure consumer reports in conjunction with my application with Case Marketing INC. The term consumer report means a written, oral, or other communications prepared by a consumer reporting agency that may include information concerning character, general reputation, personal characteristics (including my driving record, criminal history, etc.), or mode of living. I understand that such reports may be compiled through information from court records, department of motor vehicles, past or present employers or educational institutions, government, occupational licensing or registration agencies, business or personal references, and other sources necessary to verify information I have furnished to Case Marketing INC. I understand I am entitled to know if Case Marketing INC is considering denying my independent contractor agreement or separating me from my independent contractor agreement based on information contained in such reports, and before such action is taken, to receive a copy of the reports and a written statement of my rights. I release Case Marketing INC, its clients, agents, contractors, and employees from any liability in connection with obtaining such reports.

To assist Case Marketing INC and its clients in the proper identification of my file and/or review of records, I have sent forth below certain information, which Case Marketing INC and others acting on its behalf may use in conjunction with reviewing my background and/or completing with consumer reports to be prepared for Case Marketing INC.
